

MALWA CENTRAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN, LUDHIANA

HUMAN RIGHTS CLUB

Session 2025-26

Vision

To build a just, inclusive and compassionate campus community where every individual's dignity, freedom and human rights are respected, protected and promoted.

OBJECTIVES

1. To create awareness among students about the importance of human rights, social justice, and democratic values through education and dialogue.
2. To encourage youth participation in community-based initiatives promoting peace, gender equality, and inclusivity.
3. To organize seminars, workshops, and outreach programmes on issues such as child rights, women's empowerment, environmental sustainability, and social harmony.
4. To collaborate with government agencies, NGOs, and academic institutions to strengthen advocacy and action for human rights protection.
5. To cultivate leadership qualities and civic responsibility among students, preparing them to contribute effectively to a just and humane society.

Composition of Human Rights Club

Malwa Central College of Education for Women has established several clubs and societies, and the Human Rights Club is one of them. The club is devoted to promoting awareness and respect for human rights among students. It encourages future teachers to uphold equality, justice, and dignity for all.

The composition of the club is simple and based on democratic principles. It consists of four members, out of which two are nominated every year from students who actively participate in social awareness, community service, and human rights-related activities. The members of governing body for the session 2024-25 are:
